

The Aftermath of Citizens United: What Corporate Personhood has Done and Possible Solutions

Monday, April 1 @ 12:15-1:15 PM
University of Akron School of Law, Room 140
150 University Ave, Akron, OH 44325

The Akron Black Law Students Association and the American Constitution Society would encourage you to join Move to Amend's Grassroots Volunteer Coordinator Keyan Bliss for an inspiring discussion on the nationwide movement to pass a 28th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution to end corporate personhood.

- Learn the history of how the Supreme Court got us here and what it will take to abolish corporate constitutional rights and get big money out of politics!
- Discover why abolishing corporate constitutional rights is directly connected to reforming campaign finance laws, access to safe food, providing affordable health care, strengthening worker rights, protecting the environment, and so much more...
- Find out about specific actions and how to get involved locally in the Sarasota area!
- Get personally inspired and motivated to join the growing Movement to Amend!

Free & open to the public.
Lunch will be provided!

Move to Amend is a coalition of over 460,000 people and hundreds of organizations committed to social and economic justice, ending corporate rule, and building a vibrant democracy that is genuinely accountable to the people, not corporate interests.

BLSA and ACS are registered organizations at the University of Akron School of Law. Registration should not be construed as approval, endorsement or sponsorship by the University of Akron, of the student organization's publications, activities, purposes, actions or positions.