

We the People vs. Corporate Rule: It's Up to Us!

Saturday, April 6th @ 2-4 PM

Ponce De Leon library

980 Ponce De Leon Ave NE, Atlanta, GA

Join Move to Amend's National Director Kaitlin Sopoci Belknap for an inspiring call-to-action and discussion on the nationwide movement to pass a 28th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution to end corporate personhood.

- Learn the history of how the Supreme Court got us here and what it will take to overturn the Citizens United v. FEC decision, abolish corporate constitutional rights and get big money out of politics!
- Discover why abolishing corporate constitutional rights is directly connected to reforming campaign finance laws, access to safe food, providing affordable health care, strengthening worker rights, protecting the environment, and so much more...
- Find out about specific actions we can take and how to get involved in Atlanta!
- Hear a panel of Atlanta organizers speak to how local issues are influenced by corporate rule and big money in politics

Free & open to the public. Move to Amend finances these tours through the generous donations of event attendees. Join us!

Move to Amend is a coalition of over 460,000 people and hundreds of organizations committed to social and economic justice, ending corporate rule, and building a vibrant democracy that is genuinely accountable to the people, not corporate interests.
